

English IV - Required Summer Reading

A Tale of Two Cities – Charles Dickens

Sense and Sensibility – Jane Austen

Heart of Darkness – Joseph Conrad

Wuthering Heights – Emily Bronte

Frankenstein – Mary Shelley

A Passage to India – E. M. Forrester

All English III students are required to read two selections from the above reading list. Students are expected to select books that they have not previously read. All students are required to write an essay during the first week of school. A test grade will be given for the required writing assignment.

It is the hope of The King's Academy that our students will be enriched by the summer reading experience, and they that they will be better prepared for educational opportunities beyond high school.
